§ 1503.13 Consent orders.

(a) At any time before the issuance of an order under this subpart, the official who issued the notice and the person subject to the notice may agree to dispose of the case by the issuance of a consent order by the official.

(b) A proposal for a consent order, submitted to the official who issued the notice, under this section must include—

- (1) A proposed order;
- (2) An admission of all jurisdictional facts;
- (3) An express waiver of the right to further procedural steps and of all rights to judicial review; and
- (4) An incorporation of the notice by reference and an acknowledgment that the notice may be used to construe the terms of the order.

§ 1503.15 Civil penalties: Civil penalties involving an amount in controversy in excess of $ 50,000, an in rem action, or injunctive relief.

(a) Any person who violates any provision of 49 U.S.C. chapter 449 (except sections 44902, 44903(d), 44907(a)–(d)(1)(A), 44907(d)(1)(C)–(f), 44908, and 44909), or a regulation prescribed or order issued under any of those provisions, is subject to a civil penalty of not more than the amount specified for each violation in accordance with 49 U.S.C. 46301, in conformity with the Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act of 1990, 28 U.S.C. 2461 (note), as amended.

(b) The authority of the Administrator, under 49 U.S.C. 46301 to propose a civil penalty for a violation of that chapter, or a rule, regulation, or order issued thereunder, and the ability to refer cases to the United States Attorney General, or the delegate of the Attorney General, for prosecution of civil penalty actions proposed by the Administrator, involving an amount in controversy in excess of $ 50,000, an in rem action, or suit for injunctive relief, or for collection of an assessed civil penalty, is delegated to the Chief Counsel and the Deputy Chief Counsel for Civil Enforcement.

(c) The Administrator may compromise any civil penalty, proposed in accordance with 49 U.S.C. 46301, involving an amount in controversy in excess of $ 50,000, an in rem action, or suit for injunctive relief, prior to referral of the civil penalty action to the United States Attorney General, or the delegate of the Attorney General, for prosecution.

(1) The Administrator, through the Chief Counsel or the Deputy Chief Counsel for Civil Enforcement, will send a civil penalty letter to the person charged with a violation of 49 U.S.C. chapter 449 (except sections 44902, 44903(d), 44907(a)–(d)(1)(A), 44907(d)(1)(C)–(f), 44908, and 44909), or a regulation prescribed or order issued under any of those provisions. The civil penalty letter contains a statement of the charges; the applicable law, rule, regulation, or order; the amount of civil penalty that the Administrator will accept in full settlement of the action or an offer to compromise the civil penalty.

(2) Not later than 30 days after receipt of the civil penalty letter, the person charged with a violation may present any material or information in answer to the charges to the agency attorney, either orally or in writing, that may explain, mitigate, or deny the violation or that may show extenuating circumstances. The Administrator will consider any material or information submitted in accordance with this paragraph (c) to determine whether the person is subject to a civil penalty or to determine the amount for which the Administrator will compromise the action.

(3) If the person charged with the violation offers to compromise for a specific amount, that person must send a certified check or money order for that amount to the agency, made payable to the Transportation Security Administration. The Chief Counsel or the Deputy Chief Counsel for Civil Enforcement may accept the certified check or money order or may refuse and return the certified check or money order.

(4) If the offer to compromise is accepted by the Administrator, the agency will send a letter to the person
